A dessert auction will follow the soup slurping. Come enjoy the soup then watch our auctioneer extraordinaire, Chris, in action, as he works for the highest bid on all the delicious desserts.

The financial report for January is on the table in the Narthex. Thank you, Randal Wubbels, for preparing this report.

Our Church

WinGS (Women in God's Service) mission for February is CenterPointe. Following are items for men and women that they will gratefully accept new sweatpants (all sizes), new or gently used coats (1X and larger), new socks, hand warmers, thermal emergency reflective mylar or foil blankets (6 pack available on Amazon for $6.98), and non-refrigerated portable snacks.

If anyone has a 2-door wooden pantry cabinet to donate, our craft room could use one. This would eliminate all the 3-drawer plastic storage boxes in the room. Please talk to Susan O'Connor if you have one. Thank you.

The next time you go shopping, you could help our church pantry needs by purchasing napkins, Kleenex and coffee (decaf and regular). Please put your donations in the pantry room (first room on the right down the Education Wing hallway).
