Where you find family

When looking for Jesus in the Old Testament...see the parallels of real people in Hebrew history. Like Moses for example. Both Moses and Jesus were born at a time when the Israelites were facing oppression. They were both supposed to be killed as babies (Moses at the hand of Pharaoh; Jesus at the hand of Herod). And yet God miraculously saved both of their lives.

Moses was the mediator of the Old Covenant, and Jesus was the Mediator of the New Covenant (Romans 3:19-26).

Our Heavenly Father used both Moses and Jesus as Deliverers. Moses was the one chosen to deliver the Israelites from slavery under the Egyptians. They had been in bondage for generations, and they were crying out to the Lord to be set free.

In the same way, God sent Jesus to deliver His people from slavery, our slavery by sin and to sin. Jesus said in John 8:34-36, "I assure you: Everyone who commits a sin is a slave of sin. A slave does not remain in the household forever, but a son does remain forever. Therefore, if the Son sets you free, you are free indeed."

Brothers and Sisters, Christ has set us free, no longer tied up in sin or tied to sin...we are bonded to the Son, we are His. He calls us His own and He came to set His people free.

We will celebrate Thanksgiving with a service on Wednesday November 25 at 7 p.m.

In 1921, an unknown soldier was buried at Arlington National Cemetery, creating a focal point for honoring American veterans. Memorial observances were held on November 11 to commemorate the end of World War I fighting at 11 a.m. on November 11, 1918—the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month. The date became known as "Armistice Day."

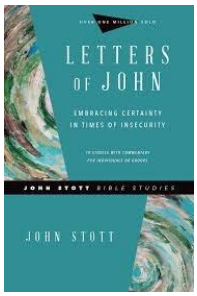

The first celebration to use the term "Veterans Day" was held in Birmingham, Alabama in 1947. In 1954, legislation renamed "Armistice Day" as "Veterans Day," the name still used for the annual observance.

WinGS (Women In God's Service)

WinGS will meet on Tuesday, November 3 at 7:00 p.m. Our lesson is chapter 10 from our book Letters of John and is titled "Welcome Strangers." We'll focus on 3 John as we discuss both the duties and limits of Christian hospitality as illustrated by John's letter both commending and rebuking members of the early church. Ann Wubbels will lead the Bible study. Come join us!
